MAYSVILLE, KY., SATURDAY, DECEMBER 22, 1804.

Mr. G. S. Judd is in Cincinnati today. mes Tarheil of Georgetown, O.,

He starts before you get your seat—
It is a ounning trap
To send you flying off your feet
In some old isd's iap.
I got on board the ear today,
Had just stepped through the door,
When, in his coustomary way,
He sent me to the floor.

The motorman grinned, but I did not:
"I'll make complaint," said I;
"I'll make your old position bot—"
A grin was bis reply.

A grin was bis reply.

Ha stopped again, and up the sisis
A lovely maiden cams;
Her lips half parted in a smile,
Checks tinged with rosy flame.

Checks tinged with rosy flame.

Now, will that flend turn on the orank.
To cause this maid mishap?

Coincidence: He gave a yank
And popped her in my jap.

Lought her, siee she would have gone
Clean through the window glass.
A space of Paradise, Lowa,
But it was brief, also!

But it was brief, shea!
She found a more congenial scat,
Sweet maid was mortified:
She looked a moment at her feet
Embarrassment to hide.
When finally I made retreat,
The motorman grinned, for he
Supposed her deased my angry heart
And made amends to ma,

THE Courier-Johnnai man has roused at last. He says "The opposition to Colonel W. O. BRADLEY seems to have retired to a corner." So far as is known at this end of the line, The C-J man is correct. The opposition to Colonei BRADLEY comes from the Democrats who have not only "retired to a corner," but who are now actively engaged in the bottle act.

The grandest concert ever held in the Sixth Ward was given Friday, December 21st, 1994, by the colored school in the Plymouth Baptist Church. Miss Luella B. Stewart, the teacher, managed the program. The church was beautifully decontained the program of gram. The church was beautifully deco-rated and the number of hearrs assem-bled was great. The program consisted of instrumental solos, choruses, dialogues, declamations and the visitation of Sasta Claus, which was quite a treat for the little ones. The financial part of the pro-gram was a success. We are certainly proud to have Miss Stewart with us and

And We Expect to Get It in the Next Sixty Days FROM THE SALE OF Which we have reduced to such prices that you cannot afford to pass us unless you have got money to throw at birds. Do not listen to any Arabian Night's tales, but come and see us and we will convince you that what we advertise is not too good to be true. Our patrons know we set no snares to catch them with. We mean as we always do-every word we say. The shoe business, as in every other branch, is a matter of cold dollars and cents. Quality and prices are the ruling factors. We propose to sell Boots and Shoes so low for the next sixty days that you cannot think of going elsewhere. We must sell the goods, for we need the money. You will come nearer getting Boots and Shoes for nothing in that time than you ever did in your life if you buy of us. Remember, quality and price; they are what you are looking for. We have got them both. The biggest stock and most varied assortment in the state are in our mammoth house right now. Do not make yourself lose money these hard times by going elsewhere, but come to us and we will help you economize.

If you want Shoes this cold weather, Come, get ours; they are made of leather. The price? This is so very small Tis scarcely worth the name at all.
